Dear Military Supporters:

Thank you so very much for the check for postage. Currently we are sending care packages to military units deployed in Iraq, Afghanistan, Kuwait, Qatar, and Kyrgyzstan. It is through the kindness and generosity of individuals like you who make it possible for us to continue our mission of providing support and encouragement to our men and women in uniform. Packages from home always boost morale and let our troops know that the American public appreciates the sacrifices they are making to stand guard at Freedom's front door.

I wanted to share with you the enclosed DVD (for use in a DVD player) of slideshows of troop photos. I think you will find it very interesting and nothing like you typically see or hear on the evening news.

P.S. This is our newest DVD. It is filled with new pictures of our brave men and women who are over seas!

Sincerely,

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your donation to the Holocaust Museum Houston. Your donation of $174.38 (check No. 7019, dated 4/20/2011) will help continue to offer free admission to the museum. Contributors like you offset the operational expenses incurred to maintain a no charge facility and enables schools to visit the Museum. The Museum's mission is reflected in the decision to operate free of charge in order to remove all barriers -- economic, educational, ethnic, color, and religious -- to serve the community in learning the important lessons of the Holocaust and the price of hatred.

Come visit the Museum and view our two new exhibitions: Fragile Fragments: Expressions of Memory and Displaced Persons: Photography by Clemens Kalischer now on display. Fragile Fragments examines the complex relationship between art and loss while Kalischer's photos chronicle the arrival of Holocaust refugees in the United States in the late 1940s. Come visit the Museum and be a part of these spectacular exhibits!

With your support, we can continue to educate students and visitors. Thank you again for making such a bold statement in the name of acceptance and mutual respect. Together we can make the world a better place.

Sincerely,

Susan Myers

Seitlin Benefits

He'd done two tours in Iraq and yet his sacrifice was not enough to protect him from homelessness. He lost his job as a security guard. Now, his wife and baby sat with him as he told of the eviction that threatened his family. Without a job, the bills were piling up. He owed rent, gas, water and electric. Our case worker got on the phone calling in search of someone who could join with us to get these bills paid. After many calls, she located a veteran's assistance program in Miami. Together, we could pay the bills. We were able to remove the financial burden from his shoulders and restore hope. Now he can go out and look for another job, knowing the bills are paid. It is only with the help of generous donors that we have the funding to pay rent, utilities, car repairs, etc. It is only with an army of friends that we can lift up those who have fallen. He fought to save us all. We fought to find a way to pay his bills and to say "thanks" for his sacrifice.

Dear Mrs. Zweig and Temple Congregation,

On behalf of the National Council of Jewish Women, Northwest Broward Section, we once again thank you for your participation in collecting food for the Ruth W. Shapiro March for the Hungry 2011, You and the congregants did a fabulous job. All of the donated food was distributed to the Cooperative Feeding Program, WECARE, and our local food pantries in Coral Springs. There was such generosity in this critical time of need. A successful collection night celebration was held March 10 at Sawgrass Springs Middle School in Parkland, FL, where the more than 12,000 pounds of food was collected and distributed. Over 40 public and private schools, preschools, temples, communities, and businesses in the community participated in the food drive.

We also raised enough money to make 150 summer boxes and will be making more next month to be distributed to needy children in the Broward Schools.

NCJW is a volunteer organization, inspired by Jewish values, that works to improve the quality of life for women, children and families to ensure individual rights and freedoms through research, education, advocacy and community service programs initiated by its network of 90,000 volunteers, supporters and members nationwide. The Northwest Broward Section, which is based in Coral Springs and Parkland, has over 300 members.

Thank you again for your support of this worthwhile program. Your generosity has made a difference for many less fortunate. We look forward to working with you again next year.

Dear Ms. Myers,

When Jane and her family first came to Women In Distress, she was fearful and could not make eye contact with her counselor due to the long term abuse that had been inflicted on her. Her children cried of fear and anxiety when left in our respite center during counseling sessions.

Because of your support, Women In Distress is able to provide vital services to thousands of people like Jane each year. Jane has been able to rebuild her self-esteem and has the tools she needs to build a new life. Today, Jane has a full-time job; she is able to support her family and no longer lives in fear of her abuser.

Thank you for your generous contribution in the amount of $174.38. Each gift makes a difference in the lives of families affected by domestic violence and helps put them on the road to a new life free of fear and violence.

As the only nationally accredited, state-certified, full service domestic violence center serving Broward County, Women In Distress is committed to a world where love does not hurt. Domestic violence knows no boundaries, and in partnership with you, we could be helping a friend, neighbor or colleague close to your heart.

WID will soon open the new Jim and Jan Moran Family Center campus in Deerfield Beach to better meet the needs of our community. With this expansion, the amount of space to help families will double.

If you would like to learn more about the "Project SAFE Place" capital campaign and tour our new facility, please contact Danay Pelaez, Development Director, at 954-760-9800 ext. 1235 or by email at dpelaez@womenindistress.org

Your gift changes lives and creates a positive impact in our community. Thank you for your commitment to keeping families safe.

With gratitude,

Mary Riedel
