

WHAT
SUPPORTING

Judaism teaches us that to destroy a single human soul is equivalent to destroying an entire world; and to sustain a single human soul is equivalent to sustaining an entire world.

Religious exclusivists are very well funded, for example they build schools, training camps, and networks of terrorist organizations, and internet websites that teach intolerance and hatred. We must support our own Jewish organizations and make them stronger. We must teach our children that hatred and intolerance is not the answer.

When you take a seat in our Sanctuary or send your children to our religious school you are supporting religious pluralism. You are a participant in ensuring that the world has hope for peace.

Dedicate a pew in our new Sanctuary and be instrumental in advocating for social change. Supporting Judaism through Temple membership and funding is taking an active roll in building a strong and healthy organization that teaches our children how to stand up to religious totalitarianism.

Congregation Kol Tikvah is committed to teaching the morals and values of Judaism. This gives us the ability to build a new world that promotes tolerance and compassion.

Congregation Kol Tikvah is an organization that promotes religious pluralism. We believe in people building relationships with others of different religious identities, in a mutually inspiring manner that emphasizes respect for, and engagement with, others' differences and shared concerns.

"And a single human being was created for the sake of peace, that none might say: My lineage is greater than yours!"
